

Kanno Tsukemono Foods Co., Ltd.

Since its foundation in 1940, Kanno Tsukemono Foods has upheld the following management principles: 'to contribute to society and become a company trusted by society'; 'to ensure the material and spiritual well-being of each and every employee and their families'; and 'to become a sustainable company'.

Furthermore, carrying on the legacy of our founder, Kikuo Kanno, and upholding the motto 'better products at lower prices', we have set ourselves the management vision of 'becoming an innovative company that continues to inspire our customers', and have constantly strived to improve both 'flavour' and 'quality'.

Yukio Kanno,
Representative Director

Whilst preserving traditional flavours, we strive to explore the full potential of pickled vegetables. We boldly tackle challenges that others might shy away from, and through the development of new products, market expansion and the creation of innovative business models, we aim to become a company that will be loved for a century, transcending the times.
